Ramona offers it all — many residents are finding the products, activities and culture they are looking for right here in town.

The ever-changing scenery keeps things interesting. And many of these modifications are adding excitement to our little town — such as brand-new businesses, or renovations of existing ones.

Discovering what's new in Ramona can be fun for the whole family.

Uptown Boutique

Dresses, hats, jewelry and more — Uptown Boutique brings an assortment of items to the people of Ramona, with both new and used products for sale.

Owner Andrea Delgado opened shop Nov. 12, 2016, and has enjoyed

She says the shop "caters to moms and their little humans," with the front of the store offering all-new items, and the back half of the store offering consignment items.

Many of her products are locally sourced, such as the fun hats, wooden signs and jewelry, and she said she is happy to be supporting other local small businesses by selling their products.

The store is located at 738 Main St., and is open Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Thursday, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Friday and Saturday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; and Sunday, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Follow the shop on Facebook at "Uptown Boutique."

Delgado encourages people to "come shop," and check out the fun items she has for sale.

Casa Rustica

One of the newest additions to town is Casa Rustica, which opened for business July 1.

"The store is very unique, even in San Diego," says Andres "Andy" Canales, who owns and operates the store with his wife, Mary Anne.

As longtime Ramona residents, they wanted to bring something new and distinctive to our town — and it seems they have succeeded.

After taking several months to renovate the building, the couple traveled to Guadalajara to hand-pick the products they wanted for the store.
